

St Peter's Church

Sunday 16th January 2022

Second of Epiphany

Collect for today:

Almighty God, in Christ you make all things new:

transform the poverty of our nature by the riches of your grace, and in the renewal of our lives make known your heavenly glory;

through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Post Communion:

God of glory, you nourish us with your Word who is the bread of life:
fill us with your Holy Spirit that through us the light of your glory may shine in all the world.

We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

A message from Bryan Blake

With our two sons, I have been deeply touched by the many kind sentiments expressed regarding Edna – in cards, letters or by word of mouth. They have been a profound comfort and I feel blessed to have shared my life with her for so long.

Thank you, Steve, Jon and all of you at St Peters for your kind support over the past few weeks. Bryan

If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.
