

Collect for today:

God, the giver of life, whose Holy Spirit wells up within your Church: by the Spirit's gifts equip us to live the gospel of Christ and make us eager to do your will, that we may share with the whole creation the joys of eternal life; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Post Communion prayer:

God our Father, whose Son, the light unfailing, has come from heaven to deliver the world from the darkness of ignorance: let these holy mysteries open the eyes of our understanding that we may know the way of life, and walk in it without stumbling; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

MComms, Q & A (part 2)

..... concluding the notes from the evening with Rev'd Steve Bailey at St. Peter's on 10th Sept. (see also part 1, published 15-09-24)

Q. (as follow-up to the previous question about the number of clergy per Minster Community) Could Linda be asked to move somewhere else?

A. We don't know, but Linda herself, as a self-supporting (non-stipendiary) curate, has some autonomy in the matter.

Q. Has it (MComms) been trialled?

A. There have been two pilot studies (Areas 1 & 2) and feedback, in Synod, is promising. Steve is excited that a particular focus is on 'outreach in our communities'.

Q. Could we end up with four ministers all working slightly differently, or will it change again and again?

A. Once set up, the groupings 'will be firmly set in stone'. 'The over-arching model will be the same, but the local details will be different.'

Q. Has there been any talk of closures, rurally?

A. This is 'a nettle that has not yet been grasped'. The C of E is adamant that there should be 'A Christian presence in every community.'

Q. 'What can two old people do?'

A. 'Pray for the Christian presence in all communities.' 'When it comes to the forming, it will be a lot of work, and it will be crucial that it's done right.'

'Try and help shape it in a positive way..... be a bit more proactive and positive and make it work as best it possibly can.'

Q. Will there be an opportunity to have another update?

A. Yes, after Discernment Day.

Other notes from the evening:

- our Minster model will not be based on one large Resourcing Church, as in Mkt. H'boro'. It will be 'a reimagined model.'
- re. clergy for services of Holy Communion in each church involved, 'All things are on the table'.
- the cathedral is funded by Church Commissioners who manage the assets of the C of E. This funding is quite separate from the churches of the Diocese.

Rev'd Jon Tearne

We want to update you on how Jon Tearne is doing and on some interim arrangements until he is back at work.

Jon is continuing to make progress but is still recuperating from his illness, so it will likely be some weeks before a return to ministry. He and Beth are hugely grateful for the love and prayer they have felt from St Peter's. In the interim, we plan to ensure leadership is in place and maintain momentum with critical activities. Sami Lindsey from St John's has offered to give St Peter's approximately two days per week to ensure oversight is in place. The PCC has gratefully accepted this in the spirit of the ongoing partnership with St John's. Sami will be present roughly two Sundays out of four from October to lead services and preach.

Please speak to Linda, Anne, or Angela if you have questions. Please continue to pray for Jon, Beth, and Eliana as Jon recovers.

Retreat 2024

A wonderful time was had by all who attended this year's retreat at the Hayes Conference Centre!

Whatever we may understand about the world, God is the mystery at its heart and if we want to live with God, we must learn to live with mystery. Poem read by Jean
